UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

Case No.CR 88-0936-t

77 CV 2108 H
Motion for Correction or Reduction of Sentence of Judgement.

Under Title 18 U.S.C.3582(c)(2)

Procedural History

Petitioner before the court, on september 25, 1989 was sentenced by the Honorable Howard B. Turentine, which defendant reveived 300 months by the Court, which the calculated a level 36 (see exhibit 3&4) of the sentencing transcript.

Legal Argument

The defendant calculates what Congress and the U.S sentencing commission proposed crack guidelines new amendment, the defendant would be under the amount of 500 grams by the government on our calculation (see exhibit 4&8) sentencing hearing transcript.

Next Legal Argument

Is that 18 U.S.C Section (c) (2) gives the district court the discretion to reduce a sentence whenever a guideline range has been subsequently low by the sentencing commission.

In the state of the state of Honorable Judge, You do have the flexibility with the new amendment which gives you the power to resentence me. The petitioner in this above case is asking the court to grant this motion for immediate release based on the new crack cocaine amendment. And the fact the petitioner has served 90 percent of his 300 month sentence that was imposed on him.

Two Argument

The petitioner is in fact a model inmate in the prison. (see exhibit #2 & 3) Chronological disciplinary record. Also (see exhibit #5) petitioner education transcripts while in prison.

Conclusion

For all the foregoing reasons, petitioner humbly request that this Honorable court grant his motion for immediate release.

Date: Nov, 3,2007

Robert James Moore #15878-198

it's under 500 grams, it's a 34, and if it's 500 or over, it's a 36?

MR. LASATER: Yes, your Honor. The only disagreement is what's attributable to Mr. Moore.

. З

THE COURT: Okay. But, we have the two bases to start from -- your contention and your contention. Very well -- proceed, Counsel.

MR. BROOKLIER: Perhaps, I should start there then, your Honor, since the Court asked that question. This is less than 500 grams by the Government's own calculations. It's clearly a criminal 34 category. I would suggest — and I would have suggested — if the Government wants to stick Mr. Moore with more than he pleads to, that should have been done by a trial. We should have had a trial.

You know, your Honor, when Mr. Moore was first indicted, when he voluntarily surrendered himself to the jurisdiction of this court -- he was out at sea someplace. He didn't have to come back. When he came back here in November, your Honor, that was -- count seven was the charge he was facing -- that hand-to-hand delivery. And, we go through months and months of pre-trial preparation, and the Government, on the very day of trial -- and I mean this in no demeaning way to Mr. Lasater, who has been a perfect gentlemen and a fine advocate for the Government -- on the day of trial drops the 848. That has to mean something. It count two. So, that's why I say that I don't think there is a basis for going to 36, as counsel does and the Probation Office does. That was one of the reasons we pled to -- that this case resolved itself, was because we limited the object of the conspiracy to the substantive count in count seven.

I think it would be unfair, your Honor, to hold Mr. Moore responsible for all -- for the entire -- all of the overt acts, et cetera, et cetera, in the conspiracy count when that was not his intention, as testified on the record.

THE COURT: Counsel, I've read and considered the presentence report -- this, and of course, your argument, and I've read the matters that you filed in support of your position here this morning. I believe, under the guidelines, I'm entitled to take into consideration the overall amount of drugs involved. I, therefore, will find that this case is a category 36.

I have some disagreement with the Probation Office at this point on the state of the record as to whether the Defendant is classified as a four or a three, and I will reduce that from a four to a three -- there's no question in my mind that the Defendant was a manager or a supervisor, but not an organizer or leader. He may have been, but I think it's very clear that at least, he was a manager or supervisor. So, that will increase the matter from 36 to

39. He gets a credit of two for acknowledging his responsibility, which puts him at 37.

Then, we go to the criminal history. The Government puts him at nine, which would put him at class four. Where's my chart?

(Pause.)

MR. BROOKLIER: Does your Honor wish the sentencing table?

THE COURT: I have it here. It's just a question of finding it. Let's see, we've got 36, 34, 37 -- and I would think he would fit in as to not a class four, but a class three, which the sentence range is from 262 to 327 months. That's the way I calculate it.

Be that as it may, the Court has read and considered the presentence report, considered the nature and circumstances of the offense, and the history and characteristics of the Defendant. I find the guidelines --computed in the manner and method which I did, of 262 to 327 months. Therefore, pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it's the judgment of the Court that the Defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 300 months. Upon release from imprisonment, the Defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a period of five years. The Defendant shall abide by the standard conditions of supervised release and

Just a couple of other comments, your Honor -- I'd like to cite one case to the Court that I think is going to be a very important case in terms of the guidelines and their application. It really comes down to the real versus charged offense sort of theory. There's a case in the Western District of Tennessee -- it's called United States versus Smith, and it's at 686 F.Supp. 1246. The court in that case stated -- and I'm going to quote,

"The conduct necessary to support inclusion in the base offense level must be established by a finding of the jury, a plea of guilty confirmed by a finding of guilty in open court, or a stipulated offense other than the offense of the conviction."

Now, what that means, your Honor, is this. This is what I think it means -- that the Government can't agree to a stipulated basis, or a factual basis, on June 7, 1988 -- the date of Mr. Moore's plea -- and then, come in here four months later, as if they've convicted him of the 848. They didn't. That's why we have juries, that's why we have courts.

Lastly, your Honor, I think there are some things that need to be stricken from the presentence report. I'm not going to go through the Prosecution version because that's their allegation, and I know that the Court accepts it that way. But, in terms of -- starting on page 21, to be
